A note from Mr Stoyles

I hope that you are having a great week so far. Thank you to those of you who came to the school Parent Forum yesterday, it was great to hear your positive feedback and suggestions on moving the school forward. The slides used for this will be sent out for you to view in due course.

We were delighted to welcome Bishop Philip to our school on Monday morning. He went on a guided tour around the school and got the chance to speak to all the children in their classes. They most certainly had lots of questions to ask! After this, he led a collective worship for the children based around forgiveness. We are waiting for the pictures from his visit to be sent and will make sure some of these are published in next week's newsletter.

Based on responses from our Parent Forum, we would like to remind parents to make the most of the space available in our school carpark. Being a small school, we are incredibly fortunate to have the luxury of a large car park. Could you please make sure that cars are parked in a reasonable safe manner.

After launching a collection of new songs for our morning Wake and Shake, we would like to remind parents that this begins at 8:45. There have been instances where children have been arriving late for the school day, resulting in them missing some of our important morning activities.

I hope you have a great end of week!
